1. Applications to the air force school in Dublin (R52/L51) are usually channelled through the Z.N.P. or the S.P. Sometimes, as in one candidate's case, it is done through the W.N.R. in Kalisz, where a Capt. (Dm) Paszycowski is among the selecting officers. The selection of the candidates is on a purely political basis. Candidates recommended by the Z.N.P. or S.P. are required to have completed six classes of elementary school only. The selected candidates are sent to Dublin for a ten day preparatory course, after which their admission or rejection is decided. In 1951 there were three thousand (3000) candidates for the various air force schools in Poland. The number of vacant places at the Dublin air force school for that year totaled one hundred and fifty (150).
2. The airfield in Dublin dates from before the war. It is guarded by a company of the Obrona Lotnicza (Air Defense). The color of their uniforms is grey.
- The following planes are stationed at the airfield: twenty YAK; five U-2 trainer planes; I L and T U two-engine planes, about twenty in number; three Douglas; and some old fighter planes.
3. The garrison in Kalisz consists of five thousand soldiers. They came to Kalisz at the end of 1951, and are thought to have been previously stationed in Lublin. The troops belong to the infantry and are poorly motorized. They are billeted in quarters located on the corners of Pielarska and Lazienna streets and Nowy Swiat and Zynierskiego streets. The staff building, a four-story structure, is located on Aleja Stalina, which is not far from the river Prosna.
